

December 9, 2009 Announcements

Lost and Found

Students! Please check the Lost and Found for any unclaimed items. They will be given to Goodwill Friday afternoon, December 18th.

Candy Cane Gram

Don't forget to order your Candy Cane Grams to send to all of your Apex friends. Pre-order all this week and Monday, December 14, outside of the cafeteria. They are only 50 cents each and all proceeds benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association. Teachers and staff are invited to join in on the fun too. You must know your recipient's 2nd period teacher or their room number when you order.

GSA

The world's quickest GSA meeting will be held on Tuesday 12/15 from 2:30 to 3:00 PM. See you briefly on Tuesday!

Class Rings

Class rings can be picked up Tues. Dec. 15 during both lunches in the gym lobby.

Apex DECA

Yesterday at NC State, Apex DECA competed in District competition. 748 students from 18 high schools were in attendance at the conference. Apex finished as the top school overall. We brought home more total trophies and more 1st place trophies than any other school. 50 students from Apex qualified for State competition.

The following students won in their respective categories:

Kelly Douglass, Chelsea Bosworth, Megan May, Mark Kochanski, Sarah Edwards, Brian McCoy, Chris DiCosola, Carrie Nielander, Janice Tallman, Keerthi Boru, Angie Ramkellawan, Sarah Tegen, Alex Strickler, Alex Weitzel, Kristin Huizenga, Matt Christopherson, Collin Gibbons, and Parker McNeely.

Computer Science Education Week

The U.S. House of Representatives' recently designated December 6-12, 2009 as Computer Science Education Week in recognition of the transformative role of computing and the importance of providing students with the opportunity to take rigorous computer science courses. Apex offers four computer science courses.

If you would like to learn more about computer science, talk with Mrs. Keller or Mrs. Smith. If you are interested in careers in a technology field, including computer-related and engineering, talk with a CTE teacher to learn more about courses and jobs.

The Environmental Club

The Environmental Club will meet after school on Thursday in room 704 to finalize plans for the trip to the Carolina Tiger Rescue Preserve. All students planning to go on the trip are asked to attend the meeting and bring all of the required forms. The trip is scheduled for this Saturday, Dec. 12.

Yearbook

For those of you who haven't purchased a yearbook yet, there's no time like the present! Hurry up and order your yearbook because next year the price will go up! You can go to the Apex High website to order your yearbook online for only $65.00.

German Club

Attention German Club! Please bring $14.00 for your German Club T=Shirt to Herr Maseman in room 607 by next Thursday December 17th. Please make any checks payable to Apex High School.

German Club will have a Holiday gathering next Monday December 14th. Members please read your email and reply or let Herr Maseman know in person if you are coming.

Rotary Youth Leadership

Rotary Youth Leadership interviews will take place today during lunch in Student Services.

ASVAB

ASVAB Scores will be distributed next Wed. during homeroom. Students should report directly to the auditorium for an interpretation.

Graduation Supplies

Attention Seniors! If you have not ordered your graduation announcements and caps and gowns, Herff Jones will be back to take orders in the Gym Lobby on Tuesday, December 15th during lunch.

Bring an $80.00 down payment to cover your graduation supplies. The balance will be due in the spring. Make checks and money orders payable to Herff Jones.

Extra order packets can be picked up in the main office.

The Book Club

The Book Club meets on Thursday at 2:30 in the Media Center. Bring books you need to return or renew. New members are always welcome.

Ms. Stone's 3rd Annual Toy Drive

Santa Claus is coming, and he is you! Please consider giving a child a wonderful Christmas! Bring a new, unwrapped toy for ages 0-16 to POD 1F. Toys accepted until December 16th. Thank you!

